

A Kitty Named Little Boy

A Kitty Named Little Boy is a heartwarming story based on a true adventure. Little Boy was abandoned by forces unknown. As a tiny, starving kitten he found his way under a shipping container that was used as an office for a pottery business owned by Mrs. Lunn. She adopted him as her own and they formed an unbreakable bond. EZRA TURNER was born on the Island of Bermuda. As a young boy he suffered from dyslexia and had problems in school. During the time he attended school, no one knew what dyslexia was. He had trouble concentrating on things. If someone interrupted him reading, he would have to go all the way back to the beginning and start again. He dealt with this problem by improving his memory. This makes his writing picture clear and easy to read.
