

Favorite Foods Kids

This is a very adorable childrens book filled with kids holding and posing with different foods. It contains over 45 images that, with practice and guidance, will enhance a childs natural cognitive functions through pattern-seeking learning by working with your child over and over again on their favorite foods. The food names are easy to read and identify with an adorable child character to attract cognitive focus and attention. All proceeds benefit educational research. Teachers are welcome to make copies for private classroom learning.
